Protection

Stressors to the sense of safety and protection.
- 73% Lack of income opportunities.
- 9% Reduction in humanitarian assistance in Azraq Camp.
- 8% Risk of eviction.

The most common barrier for refugees returning to their country of origin.
- Security situation: 91%
- Lack of health or education services: 43%
- Lack of livelihood opportunities: 41%

Only 1% of refugees wanted to return to their countries of origin.

Gender

64% of responses affirmed that girls were the group considered most at risk of experiencing violence.
41% of responses mentioned that boys in communities are at risk of harassment.

63% of women are at risk of harassment.
5% of men are at risk of harassment.

Women Empowerment

81% The most common source of community tension is job scarcity.

Education

The most cited reasons were financial barriers.

58.3% of Jordanians and 58.7% of all other nationalities in debt do not believe they will be able to settle their debt.

Annual Needs Assessment results are based on information provided by the surveyed program participants.