Background

CARE International (CI) is among the world’s largest international non-governmental humanitarian relief and development Confederations. Drawing on its 75 years of experience, through its 21 Members, Candidates and Affiliate, CI’s work reaches over 100 countries worldwide to save lives, defeat poverty and achieve social justice, with a specific focus on the empowerment of women and girls.

At the core of the Confederation is a small, globally distributed Secretariat, which provides coordination and support to our Members, Candidates and Affiliates in areas as governance, strategic planning, communications, membership development and accountability, advocacy, humanitarian preparedness and response, resource mobilisation, and program development. In addition, the Secretariat represents the CARE Confederation at the United Nations and the European Union.

The CARE International Secretariat office in Brussels works on behalf of CARE members and country offices in their efforts to optimise CI’s fundraising and influence relevant policies from the European Union (EU), and to strengthen CI’s relationship with the EU institutions in Brussels.
